

Orange County Arts Commission

Minutes

February 9, 2009

Chair Alice Levinson called the meeting to order at 6 pm.

Gordon Jameson made a motion to approve the January, 2009 minutes; Leah Rade seconded.

Director's Report Additions:

March 18, 2009 at 8am, Martha Shannon and Alice Levinson will give brief presentation at March Board Meeting of Chapel Hill Orange County Visitors Bureau. Please email any suggestions to Alice Levinson or Martha Shannon.

Next Artists' Salon – Jaki Shelton Green may be the speaker for the May 15th Salon. FYI - She broke her ankle recently and is currently in the hospital.

April 20th – David Price will be available to attend the Congressional High School Art Competition reception at the Durham Arts Council.

Jeff Thompson (Construction Project Manager) invited Martha to speak briefly at a construction meeting regarding the new Orange County Library.

Everyone is thrilled with Senior Center Art installation.

OCAC is on the list for official liaison appointment at a BOCC work session. We are still waiting for a liaison to be appointed. There are three Commissioners who are interested in serving as the Liaison to our Commission. The OCAC Executive Committee plans to meet with the new Liaison and communicate with other interested commissioners.

Tentative FY10 Grassroots allotment is estimated to be $35,559 based on population of 130,626 people. Martha noted a lesser amount in our FY10 budget request because we may not get the full estimated amount because of state budget concerns.

Update of OCAC speaking at BOCC meeting regarding FY10-FY11 CIP money. Robert Kintz and Geoffrey Hathaway spoke on behalf of the OCAC. The BOCC seemed very receptive.

One of the BOCC's identified priorities for 2009-2010 budget is to "examine advisory Boards and Commissions." The Executive Committee and Liaison will hopefully have a close relationship. The OCAC needs to be facile with the specifics.

Percent for Art Request

OCAC needs to look at the Percent for Art proposal and recommend any edits/changes. This plan is based on Chapel Hill's Percent for Art. How do these cities deal with the schools? Chapel Hill doesn't include the schools. Mecklenburg County technically includes the schools, but includes flexibility. We need to revisit our cultural master plan. Maybe form an ad hoc site committee. Chapel Hill serves as a good example. City of Raleigh Arts Commission has recently submitted a 1/2% for Art request to the Raleigh City Council. We can send this directly to the Commissioners. We want to present this to the Liaison. Martha Shannon will make necessary updates. Robert Kintz moved that we adopt this proposal as OCAC's Percent for Art with updates; Tyler Dockery seconded.

T.I.M.E project with OC Parks and Recreation Department:

Subcommittee (Charles Hochman, Wendy Gellert, Shannon Jackson, Geoffrey Hathaway, Ingrid Medcalf, etc.) needs to meet. We need to get moving pretty quickly because we need to spend this Grassroots money by the end of June. Martha will email Lauri Taft to get this moving. If we aren't able to spend the money on this effort we could send money to American's for the Arts to pay our second half of the Arts Economic Development study. We are looking for two parks to be available for art projects. Martha will ask Lauri Taft to decide on which two Orange County parks. There are only a few and they are concerned about vandalism. Perhaps graffiti could be a part of the project, especially since these are temporary experimental installations. The main purpose of this project is to grow public artists in Orange County.

Ad hoc committee for Cultural Plan Master Plan: Robert Kintz, Leah Rade, Alice Levinson, Tammy Lambert and Gordon Jameson volunteered to be on this ad hoc committee.

Chapel Hill Aquatics Center public art dedication, Friday, February 13, 2009 from 11 am – noon at Homestead Park.

Leah Rade made a motion to adjourn at 7:20 pm; Tammy Lambert seconded.
